Bronzeville Week home stretch includes events for all ages

Bronzeville Week, an official City of Milwaukee event hosted by Alderwoman Milele A. Coggs now in its 12th year, heads into its final few days with a variety of events suitable for the entire family. Alderwoman Coggs is encouraging adults and youth alike to take advantage of the opportunities available in the coming days.

Thursday, August 10 kicks off with Be Focused – Tools to help with health goals at noon. The event will take place at Food For Health, 2007 N. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. Registration is required at foodforhealth.org. The day continues with a duo of events intended for youth. Cool Aid & Canvases begins at 12:30 p.m. at the King Drive Commons, 2275 N. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr., and Engineering Genius: Hands on Intro to African-American Invention & Innovation, starts at 1 p.m. at the Ameritech King Commerce Center, 2745 N. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr.

Bronzeville Trolley Rides will pick-up those interested at 2 p.m. and again at 3:30 p.m. at America's Black Holocaust Museum, 408 W. North Ave., and then the day concludes with Paint-N-Sip from 6 – 8 p.m. at The Q, 2730 N. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr.

Friday August 11 begins with a hybrid event (viewable at Facebook.com/BronzevilleWeek) Lit with Lay. This interactive tutorial of today's hottest dance moves will take place at 1 p.m. at Salute Society Studio, 2372 N. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. Then beginning at 2 p.m. at the MLK Heritage Health Center, 2555 N. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr., is the Luau Lullaby Community Baby Shower that will include community resources, entertainment and more.
